

This book is a visionary work that will assist the future of our antique and new carousels. The restoration's "windows to the past" approach allows a glimpse of the historic paint. The book then steps through the window into the successful use of today's methods, materials, and tools. It is a superb tool for any restorer of original or obscured paint details.

– Bette L. Largent, President, National Carousel Association

Bethesda
Communications
Group

